• The newly redesigned Lv.1 through Lv.40 classes We have added a variety of classes to select from and are updating the fighting skills of the past versions. All classes can now access the “S Tier 3 Skill” and “Formato2” attacks. To be able to access the S Tier 3 Skill, you must complete the difficulty of S Tier 1 and 2. (S Tier 1 and 2 content is excluded for class quests.) The “Formato2” is a new attack added to the Lv.1 through Lv.33 classes. This attack has increased firepower and is slightly stronger than the “Fighting Formation” attack. In addition to the S Tier 1 Skill and S Tier 2 Skill, we have also added S Tier 3 Skill and Formato2 skill. By the way, by completing the “Finnish Battle” quest, players will receive a new ability called “S Tier 2 Skill Special”. This is a usable skill that has two different effects. If you have "Disarm" set to Automatic, it is a standalone move, and if you have "Disarm" set to Manual, it's a "One-time Disarm" that will be triggered when you press the button. The weapons that can be used as a one-time disarming weapon have also been updated. You can use these weapons as they were intended to be used. The following weapons are restricted to "Finnish Battle" and are enabled only for "S Tier 1 Skill" and "S Tier 2 Skill" only. The combat system allows you to freely switch weapons at any time. The following weapons can be equipped to become a disarming attack in a button style. The weapons you can use as a one-time disarming weapon have also been updated. [Combat] Up to three weapons can be equipped as a “ranged weapon” at once. Stances have been added to your weapon. You can change to the correct stance and change your weapon in mid-battle by pressing “X”. You can display various stats in the status bar by pressing “X”, but display stats for all equipped weapons at once. You can set your attacks to “Attack start” by pressing “X”

In the middle of the game, Tyler likes a basket. In the middle of the game, Tyler likes a basket. See, Tyler pokes it with his foot, looking to see how much explosive power it has. If it rises more than about 2-3 inches, he believes it to be strong enough to sink. The best part, though, is that this basket is hidden under the court's bench. It's 10 seconds too late, but it's enough for Tyler to be granted his wished-for basketball. And, he continues to roll in that basket. It's never touched. He then creates chaos. Leading up to the action, Tyler's minutes are under threat. He's played so well for Team USA, though, that the people are finally starting to trust him. All-Teenager National Basketball Association the country does not play video games. So, he isn't the master player, but he brings something to the party that doesn't often appear. The strategy he has, though, is contrary to many who play the game. Their strategy is to get around the defense as quickly as possible. Tyler's strategy is to get his own rebound, get it to someone further up on the court as quickly as possible, get his own rebound, and then throw it over the top into the other direction as quickly as possible. When he gets it, he's on it. Quickly.
