I'm trying to download this torrent file and save the file to my computer: wget -r After I enter the user name and the password, the errors occur: Enter the username:  Enter the password:  The list of suggested peers appears, but as soon as I click the mouse and the screen is refreshed, it disappears. What am I doing wrong? Can someone help me? Thanks in advance. A: A trick If the above gets the job done for you, then just write the following piece of code to do the same with one line: wget When you get an error when trying to start the wget command, paste what's being output to your terminal and you might be able to fix the problem. Here's an example: Note that wget will fail if the listed site is not working or is otherwise not open. So you might have to manually enter and input the right parameters or have access to the internet to get the job done. Or you can fix the problem. If it really is just wget command, then something else might be causing problems. For example, you might be getting spammed. wget -r If not, then you might have solved your issue. Exploring children's motivation to participate in a cancer-specific physical activity program. The purpose of this study was to explore why a sample of 5th and 6th grade children enrolled in a cancer-specific physical activity intervention class (YMCA) and completed questionnaires on participation motivation, perceived barriers, and program satisfaction. Children completed a demographic and exercise knowledge survey, perceived barriers survey, and motivation for change survey. Subjective importance of each motivational item was ranked from very important to not at all important. Results showed that the majority (59%) of the children enrolled in YMCA and rated themselves as the most important person to motivate and encourage to exercise. The amount of physical activity that was important to participate in correlated positively with importance of family and friends and importance of the class session in the program. The most important barriers to exercise were boredom, lack of family support, and transportation problems. The most important reason to participate in YMCA was for fun c6a93da74d
